COACH DENNIS BRIDGES

Dennie Bridges, athletic director and head basketball coach, is serving as interim baseball coach for the second year. Bridges was a four-year starting shortstop at IWU from 1958-61 and coached Bloomington's entry in the Central Illinois Collegiate League for eight years, winning two championships. His 1986 IWU team finished with an 18-22 record, led the South Division of the CCIW with a 7-3 record and finished second to North Central in the four-team playoff. Serving as Bridges' assistant for the second year is Dennis Martel, a 1984 graduate of the University of Maine. He also has been Bridges' assistant in basketball for two seasons.
