The Shirk Center is home to men’s and women’s basketball and volleyball.

The $15 million Shirk Center, opened in 1994, was funded in part by a $5 million gift from the Russell and Betty Shirk Foundation of Bloomington. The Shirk family owns Beer Nuts, Inc.®, the Bloomington-based snack food company. The two-level, 135,344-square foot complex holds 2,300 for sporting events (3,450 for commencement) in its performance arena, and contains four multi-use courts for tennis, volleyball, basketball, and other sports, as well as racquetball courts, a 200-meter track, a training room and wellness center, classrooms, and other facilities.

The Shirk Center is home to men’s and women’s indoor track and field.

The Shirk Athletic Center Practice Gym features a 200-meter, six-lane indoor track plus full indoor track-and-field facilities, two baseball/softball batting cages, and four multiuse courts for tennis, recreational basketball, volleyball, and badminton, as well as space to practice golf. It also houses facilities for baseball/softball infield practice. The area was resurfaced with Mondo SX track over the summer of 2012.

The Fitness Center includes three racquetball courts, a weight/exercise room with cardiovascular and exercise equipment, and free weights. Athletic support areas include locker rooms; training room for men and women; equipment, storage, and laundry areas; offices; classrooms; a concession stand area; and a display area for athletic trophies and other memorabilia chronicling Illinois Wesleyan's rich sports history.

The activity courts and track have been home to 2 NCAA National Championship events: Indoor Track & Field in 2000, 2001.
Opened in January 2016, the Shirk Expansion added an additional 20,000 square feet to the existing Shirk Center. New amenities included:

- The Shirk Fitness Center (use in addition to the Titan Strength Center)
- Niepagen Classroom (large meeting area typically split into classroom setting in Neipagen North and workout studio in Niepagen South)
- Cycling Studio
- Second Athletic Training Facility
- Five new locker rooms
- Large storage room
Fort Natatorium is home to the IWU men’s and women’s swimming and diving teams.

The $3 million Fort Natatorium was opened in February 1988, named in honor of Illinois Wesleyan University benefactors and alumni James Madison Fort and his children, Arthur C. Fort and Clara E. Fort. In 1866, James Fort attended IWU’s preparatory school and developed a life-long love for his alma mater. Judge Arthur C. Fort was a member of the class of 1897 while Clara Fort was a member of the class of 1903.

In addition to an L-shaped, eight-lane, 25-yard swimming pool, the Natatorium provides indirect lighting, an above- and below-surface sound system, dehumidified air and Tarn Pure (non chlorine) purified water. Other features include ceramic tile, waveless gutters, full Colorado IV timing system with an 11-line scoreboard, wall mounted surgical tubing for dryland training, in-deck water polo goals, a wet classroom with audio-visual equipment, and seating for 250 spectators.

Fort Natatorium received a roughly $2 million renovation in 2016, which included the installation of state-of-the-art dehumidification and water filtration systems.
Tucci Stadium is home to the IWU football and lacrosse teams, as well as track and field.

The Illinois Wesleyan football stadium was named Tucci (pronounced Too-chee) Stadium prior to the Titans' 2011 home opener against Hope (Sept. 3).

The stadium is named in honor of University alumnus and benefactor Byron Tucci, whose gift allowed for the installation of a synthetic playing surface on the field, the fifth oldest NCAA football field in the country.

Tucci Stadium, built on the site of Wilder Field, has been used for University athletic contests for over 117 years. The new artificial turf field allows for practice for not only football but soccer, lacrosse, preseason softball and baseball and intramural activities as well. Local groups will also have an opportunity to take advantage of the new field, making it another community resource, much like the Shirk Center.
Jack Horenberger Field is home to IWU baseball.

IWU's baseball field, dedicated in 1999, is named in honor of Jack Horenberger (a 1936 Illinois Wesleyan graduate), who served on the IWU faculty for 38 years, coaching baseball from 1942-81 and basketball from 1945-65. Construction of the ballpark was the first step in a master plan aimed at upgrading IWU's outdoor athletic facilities in the late 1990s. Among Horenberger Field's features are a tiered grandstand with seating for over 350 (including predominantly chair-back seating), lighting, home and visiting team dugouts, a batting cage and picnic area.

The field has been host to 5 NCAA Baseball Regionals.
The Softball Field is home to IWU softball.

IWU Field has been home to 8 NCAA Softball Regionals and 2 NCAA Super Regionals

A new batting cage and warm-up area for pitchers was built in 2011.
Neis Soccer Field

- Neis Soccer Field is home to IWU men’s and women’s soccer.
- IWU's men's and women's soccer teams make their home at the lighted Neis (pronounced "nice") Soccer Field. The first games at Neis Field were played in August 2000.
- A new press box was erected in 2011.
The Beadles-Morse Tennis Courts

- The Beadles-Morse Tennis Courts are home to the IWU men’s and women’s tennis teams.
- The Beadles/Morse Tennis Courts offer eight different courts for Illinois Wesleyan University students, faculty, and staff to utilize for leisure, intramural, or competitive play. Conveniently located adjacent to the Shirk Center, one can find the courts being utilized often when the weather is nice. Lighting for the courts also allows for practice or play after the sun has set.
- All courts resurfaced in summer of 2017
