3 IWU GTE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS TO BE HONORED AT HALFTIME

Spectators are asked to remain in their seats briefly at the end of the first half for a special presentation.

Jim McEvers, Central Division manager for GTE, will present GTE Academic All-America awards to three Illinois Wesleyan athletes. GTE is in its third year of corporate sponsorship of the program.

Senior Brian Coderre was the leading votegetter on the College Division GTE Academic All-America basketball squad last season.

May graduate and tennis player Steve Struck, now attending the University of Illinois School of Medicine in Champaign-Urbana, was elected to the At-Large second team. The At-Large team is for players in men's sports other than football, basketball and baseball.

May graduate Brian Metz, now working in Bloomington but headed for graduate school eventually, was the third team shortstop in baseball for the second year.
